DETAILED ACTION

Please note, the application as filed on 1/29/2004 was filed with misnumbered claims. Claim 15 is repeated (for the claim at the bottom of page 38 and again as the claim number for the claim at the top of page 39). For examination purposes, the first occurrence of claim 15 is referred to as 15 (first) and the second occurrence on page 39, is referred to as claim 15 (second). Applicant should make appropriate corrections to the claims including occurrences in the dependent claims in accordance with Rule 1.126.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species

Species 1, the quote and order system of claims 1-13

Species 2, the liquidity ratio display system of claims 14 and 15 (first)

Species 3, the liquidity flow indicator system of claims 15 (second) to 17

Species 4, the quote and order entry method of claims 18-30

Species 5, the liquidity ratio display method of claim 31

Species 6, the liquidity flow indicator display method of claim 32

Species 7, the quote and order entry system of claim 33

Species 8, the information storage media of claim 34

Species 9, the quote and orders system of claim 35.

The species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.

A telephone call was made to Jason Vick (Miles and Stockbridge PC) on January 31, 2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
